MOTAL'S SECOND ANNUAL WHITE ELEPHANT SALE SET FOR MARCH 3

Museum of Teaching and Learning's second white elephant sale goes hand-in-hand with museums across the country.

Orange County, CA – February 7, 2012 – The Museum of Teaching (MOTAL) and Learning is searching for items for its March 3 annual white elephant sale, which will take place at the same time as nationally known museums.

MOTAL will hold its second annual White Elephant sale March 3 from 7-11 a.m. at Morningside Presbyterian Church, 1201 Dorothy Lane in Fullerton. Boy Scout Troop #97 will also hold a pancake breakfast at the church at the same time. MOTAL's sale will take place in March when nationally known museums also hold theirs, such as Oakland Museum in Northern California (<http://www.whiteelephantsale.org/>), Huntsville Museum of Art (<http://www.hsvmuseum.org/events/white-elephant-sale-2012/>) and also the Edith Bolling Wilson Birthplace Museum in Virginia (<http://edithbollingwilson.org/>).

Items are needed for the sale, which include collector's items, art, jewelry, clothing and toys. They can be brought to the church's reception room March 2 from 12 noon to 6 p.m. For information, call Mary at 714-879-7267.

Proceeds from the sale will benefit MOTAL's educational activities. Check out their Web site <http://www.motal.org> for more information.
